Parking for persons with disabilities

GARAGES AND CAR PARKS

In public garages and car parks there are marked parking places for disabled persons' vehicles (with a sticker).

Disabled drivers are entitled to 3-hour free-of-charge parking in garages and car parks on special market places for persons with disabilities. After this period they pay the parking per commenced hour.

At the car park "Ada Ciganlija" where parking is charged per rate, parking of persons disabilities is free of charge. At "VMA" car park persons with disabilities can park their cars free of charge for 8 hours.

STREET (GENERAL) CAR PARKS

The owners of vehicles with a 'person with disabilities sticker' do not pay the parking on specially marked places for disabled persons' vehicles on general (street) car parks. On these places persons with disabilities can park their vehicle as long as they want, free of charge. These places are marked with vertical and horizontal signalling.

In the city zone designated areas there are marked 540 general and 75 special parking places for vehicles of persons with disabilities. For parking outside the zone system is provided 18 general and parking spaces for people with special needs.

Person with disabilities can only be given/may be granted maximum two privileged parking tickets; one on the basis of disability – disabled parking ticket (DPT) and the other based on the specific zone resident (PPK). Persons with disabilities who do not live in zoned areas can only get disabled parking tickets (DPT).
